CHENANGO VALLEY
CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

Foreword

As a ship leaves port and ventures out to sea, so the time is drawing near when we, as seniors, shall leave our home-port, Chenango Valley High, to face a new sea of adventure.

In preparing to disembark from the S.S. Chenango Valley we look back over this part of our voyage with many pleasant memories. The officers, our faculty, have added greatly not only to the educational value but also to the pleasure of our trip. They were always ready to help if the weather became stormy and have given us the inspiration by which we have chosen our future course. During the voyage, we have learned much from our association with our fellow passengers, the students. From their ideas and experiences we have increased our ability to deal with our own problems. We shall never forget the hours of fun and recreation we shared under the direction of our "social directors", those members of the faculty who led us in sports and other group activities.

As we leave this ship we embark on an even larger one which will carry us through life. The knowledge and abilities gained on the S.S. Chenango Valley will help to determine the route and success of our greater voyage.

To help us remember all the pleasant memories of our voyage we present the 1960 Warrior.

Officer of the Day

The senior class of 1960 takes great pride in dedicating its most valued possession, the Yearbook, to Mrs. Edith Holmwood. In our daily contact with her during our years at Chenango Valley, we have come to realize that through her tireless effort, warm heart and helping hands, she typifies the spirit of our Alma Mater. She has truly won the hearts of our entire student body. To us, Mrs. Holmwood has become a symbol of virtue and inspiration; an ideal towards which we shall ever strive.

As we depart from Chenango Valley, we will always cherish the memories and daily associations with one of our finest teachers and friends, Mrs. Holmwood, whom we all love. To you we dedicate this annual.

This year, Student Council, the governmental organization representing the student body, began school activities with the traditional first dance of the school year, the "First Fall Fling." Besides its usual functions of representing our school and the students, helping to solve school problems, approving and scheduling school dances and club activities, raising money, and providing an example of leadership, Student Council has also made possible the standardization of school rings which will take effect beginning with the Class of 1961. Other activities of the 1959-60 school year include the authorization and sale of athletic passes for football and basketball games, the establishing of a suggestion box for a campaign to improve Student Council and the school, the selling of Chenango Valley sweat shirts, and the sponsoring of a good sportsmanship poster contest. The activities of our industrious Student Council representatives have aided Chenango Valley in its growth as a school of distinction.

Student Patrol

The Student Patrol is a vital organ of our school. It keeps the hall traffic under control and encourages students to move in an orderly manner. New members are nominated from the senior high homerooms and then selected by the members of the Student Patrol to fill the needs of the organization. This year the club is planning a trip to Philadelphia. The present officers are: Vice Captain, Ron Campbell; Captain, Lee Bearsch; Treasurer, Diane O'Brien; and Secretary, Nancy Shaver.

Receptionists

The Receptionists are selected from among members of the Junior and Senior classes. Two receptionists may be found on duty each period of the school day, one in the main lobby on the first floor and the other on the second floor near room 206. The duties of the club members consist of receiving and acting as guides to all visitors to the school as well as keeping a constant check on corridors to prevent loitering by students. This year the Receptionist Club had as their chairman, Pat Brooks, who conducted the business meetings and made out the assignment schedules under the supervision of their advisor, Mrs. Eleanor McChesney.

The students of Chenango Valley have watched the Quill grow into a fine school newspaper this year, one of which we are justly proud. Regular features include a Senior Spot, a noted senior of the month, the Chatterbox, a Dear Dora column, and an athlete of the month, as well as the customary editorial. A variety of interesting articles appear in the monthly issues. Students are invited to submit poems, jokes or news items for publication. Under the excellent guidance of Mrs. Snowden Crandall and Mrs. Elizabeth Lester, a faithful group have worked hard in the Quill's publication. John Levonik and Joan Kinder, as co-editors, supervised the planning and editing of the paper along with associate editors: Gail Morreall, Nancy Harrison, Vincent Ward, Marge Hillier, and Joan Norris. Art and layout are handled by Bunny Houpls, Billie Davenport, Diane Brownlow, and Sandy Roberts.

The Senior Council of the Junior Red Cross is a service organization open to students in senior high who wish to make a contribution to their school and community. Under the leadership of Miss Sara Squiers, the students, through many activities, were able to send a school supply chest abroad. A Christmas party was given for a ward at State Hospital and a blood drive for Ken Moss was carried on. Members also made stuffed animals for needy children. Officers were: President, Penny Ward; Vice President, Marge Kluchka; Secretary, Donna Layton; and Treasurer, Kathy Cox.

The Junior Council of the Junior Red Cross is organized on the same basis and with the same aims and objectives as the Senior Council. Under the direction of Miss Alice Turner, the club did such charity work as giving a party for the old folks at the Broome County Home, donating a wheelchair (for use by the needy children in the area) to the Red Cross, and making favors for hospital trays in Binghamton. Officers of the club were: President, Imogene Knapp; Vice President, Elizabeth Novak; Secretary, Ellen Fulkrod; Treasurer, Anita Sheffer; and Representatives to the Broome County Chapter of the Red Cross, Pat Ingwall, and Carol Hughes.

The Senior High Dramatics Club, under the direction of Mrs. Barbara Cornick, was begun to give interested students a way to try their talents. This year they have had an excellent opportunity to do so. For the annual three-act play, they produced a farce called "A Little Honey". In an assembly, the club did Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night," which gave them experience of a different type. They also presented a one-act play for Civic Theater. Along with acting, the club receives some background in wardrobe, make-up, publicity, and other aspects involved in producing plays.

At their weekly meetings, they discussed stage direction, and were given demonstrations in make-up appreciations. Along with the three-act play, the club, under the direction of Miss Audrey Lou Benn, presented a joint "Christmas Pageant" with the Junior and Senior Choruses.

Key Club is a service organization affiliated with Kiwanis Club. Each week two Key Club members attend the Kiwanis meeting to become familiar with its purpose and workings. This year the twenty-five members, with Bob Brooks as President, have undertaken several useful projects. They conducted a vocational poll last fall. Students were given questionnaires on which they were asked to check vocations in which they were interested. After the results were examined, members of the fields in which the most interest was shown were invited to speak at the school. The club also assisted the concession stand at some of the basketball games. The money raised is used in part to provide assistance for students.

The members of the club are fortunate to have at their disposal the best photographic equipment available. This gives them the opportunity to learn the skills of developing, printing and enlarging under the most favorable conditions.

At the meetings, Mr. Youngstrom, the faculty advisor, explains the operation of the camera, and various photographic processes. Following that, the students ask whatever questions they may have and then try to put their knowledge into action.

Debate Club

The eight new members of this year's Debate Club have been learning the basic principles and techniques of debating. After a few lesson meetings the group practiced for and held some debates on current national and high school topics. In order to become better acquainted with debating on the high school level in actual practice, the members attended a tournament debate of the area schools at Binghamton Central High School. For preparation the group studied the Conant Report on Education and had a debate on this topic.

Projectionist Club

The Projectionist Club, organized in 1957, has proved to be of great value in aiding the teachers in setting up various audio-visual films. Under the direction of Mr. Zenon Janowski, the members operate movie and slide projection machines for classes during the day as well as during assemblies. Experienced members instruct the inexperienced members so operators are available at all times.

It is possible to obtain Merit Badges in the following: Citizenship in the Community, or World Brotherhood. The boys meet every other week and work at their own speed; some complete the course very rapidly, others may take much longer. The club was organized about six years ago and has been gaining in popularity each year. Mrs. Lawrence is the club's very capable sponsor.

Mr. Durbin
Coach

The 1959 football season provided CV fans with plenty of excitement and fun. The Warriors defeated such teams as Homer, Waterloo, Owego, Wylusing, Sidney, and Chenango Forks. Whitney Point and Windsor were the only two teams that managed to defeat our Warriors. Coaches Smyk and Durbin should be congratulated for turning out a team that played with great determination, enthusiasm, and good sportsmanship in all kinds of weather.

Junior Varsity Football

CV's Junior Varsity Football team had quite an impressive season in 1959. Under Coaches Newton and Nolan, the team came through with a four-one record. The twenty-two man squad played such teams as Oxford, Harpursville, Susquehanna Valley, Windsor, and Whitney Point. It is interesting to note that in the last two games the squad was reduced because several outstanding members were promoted to the varsity squad.

ROW 1 (L. to R.): P. Rocks, B. Jackson, D. Panko, E. Williams. ROW 2: G. Warner, M. Benjamin, N. Kuric, P. Williams. ROW 3: B. Soliwoda, D. Nappl, R. Rose, C. House.

The 1959 cross country season was one of the most successful ever. Meets were held at CV, Windsor, Greene, Vestal, and Cincinnatus, with the CV runners winning two first places. Especially noteworthy is Mike Leonard, who received four individual trophies at these meets. Although U. E. won first place in the State meet, as a team, our Section 4 placed second in the same meet. Since there were only a few seniors on the team, Coach McDaniel predicts an even more improved group next year. Some of the teams CV defeated were Binghamton North, Windsor, Greene, and Chenango Forks.

Mr. Arthur Sharpsteen

— Coach —

Confronted with one of the strongest varsity schedules in Chenango Valley's history, the hoopsters under the direction of Mr. Sharpsteen began the 1959-1960 basketball season with five straight losses. During the Christmas holiday however, a tremendously inspired team won the Sidney Holiday Tournament and then proceeded to compile a record of 9 wins out of the remainder 12 games. Continuing in the sections, the Warriors were victorious over U. E. 70-53 and Johnson City 66-56. We may all be proud of our very fine club.

Junior Varsity Basketball

Every CV basketball fan, whether student or adult, is certainly very proud of this season's exceptional Junior Varsity team. Coach Bob McDaniel must agree that this is the finest J.V. squad in CV history. To the fans, at least, the 6:30 preliminary this year became almost as important as the 8:00 Varsity game. On Tuesday, February 9, the J.V. Warriors were handed their first defeat in 13 games by Owego. The record of wins over such schools as Union Endicott, Oneonta, Binghamton North, Binghamton Central, Vestal, Johnson City, and Homer is remarkable, and CV is very pleased with this fine group of boys. In completing their season, the J.V.'s won 16 and lost only two games, both to Owego.

ROW 1 (L. to R.): D. Holcomb, B. Hardy, Mgr. J. Decker, D. Leaky, E. Krajca. ROW 2: B. Brown, D. Baker, G. Campbell, Coach B. McDaniel, M. Ryan, K. Slocum, T. McKee.

Wrestling

Experiencing the most successful season in CV's wrestling history, the 1960 wrestling team, under Coach Harvey, compiled a record of five wins and six losses. In competition against many of the long-established wrestling teams of the Southern Tier, the Warriors have given notice that CV is a team you don't overlook. Especially noteworthy are the records of Doug Hall (106 lbs.) and Garry Hall (168 lbs.), who represented CV at the Section 4 Finals held at Cortland, and the seven lettermen around which the 1961 squad will be built.

Baseball

ROW 1 (L. to R.): C. Shafer, F. Hazard, D. Cihak, D. Holcomb, T. Hauser, K. Slocum, J. Truchan, J. Corey, D. Leahy. ROW 2: R. Reece, M. Carnese, G. Haulton, P. Sabin, M. O'Loughlin, R. Brown, L. Parsons, D. Lord, R. Lalley. ROW 3: C. Woodruff, W. Soliwada, N. Tkaczow, G. Hitchcock, R. Nappi, E. Williams, B. Barrus, D. Benjamin. ROW 4: K. Billo, J. Ross, P. Bryce, J. Randall, W. Burnett, C. Slocum, W. Lawrence, E. Hogg. ROW 5: R. Sharer, R. Varva, K. Moses, A. Sharpe, G. Smith, J. Cregier, R. Maguire, J. Ward.

Fielding four teams for the very first time, the CV Baseball Warriors under the direction of coaches DeCastro (Varsity), Weckel (J.V.), Valentine (9th), and Osborne (7th and 8th) completed their 1959 season with a very respectable record of twenty-five wins, twelve losses, and one tie. Highlights of the past baseball season included two undefeated teams—the J.V.'s and the 7th and 8th grade team. From the performances of early tryouts, prediction indicate that the 1960 Baseball season will again prove very successful.

Soccer

One of CV's sportsteams composed of many seventh and eighth graders is our soccer team. Coached by Stanley Wilson, the group of thirty-eight boys played such teams as West Junior, Maine, and Maine-Endwell. Their co-captains were Shaffer, Leonard, and Harmes. Their seven game schedule ended with two ties, and four one-point losses.

T. DeDio, D. Campbell, R. Campbell, R. Lamp-man, Coach Smyk.

The 1959 Track season at Chenango Valley was one of the finest ever. Fast becoming one of the spectator sports, track is coached by Mr. Carl Newton and Mr. Peter Smyk. The season began with the Vestal relays and ended with the Zone meet at Cortland, in which CV placed first. Winners of the Section Four Meet were Dick Lampman and Ken Moss, who then went to the State Meet at Cornell. Cortland, Windsor, Chenango Forks, Blue Ridge and Greene are only a few of the teams defeated by the CV runners.

Volleyball

ROW 1 (L. to R.): A. Young, P. Bryce, R. Brooks, K. Moses, L. Bearsch, R. Campbell, D. Shaver, E. Williams. ROW 2: Coach Smyk, J. Narsavage, C. House, K. Waod, R. Tucker, W. Compton, P. Rocks.

In the third year of competition in the Triple Cities League, our volleyball team matched their skill against that of such teams as North High, Central, Johnson City, and Union Endicott. The twenty man team began the season with a 2-1 victory over Binghamton North, and ended the season with a 7-17 record. This earned them fourth place in the league. Their coach, Mr. Smyk, has given us a team that we can be proud of.

Cheerleaders

T-E-A-M, Yaaaaaaah Team!

Throughout our high school days at football and basketball games, whether there's rain or snow, you will always find CV's sixteenpert and peppy Varsity and Junior Varsity cheerleaders out to cheer our team on to victory. Out in front of the crowds, cheering with new and inspiring cheers, they encourage our Warriors on through good or bad times. When a player knows that the whole school is behind him and rooting for him, he tries a little harder for that extra yard or basket. Captains this year were: Football, Nancy Miller (V); and Basketball, Sandy Young (V) and Sue Canders (JV).

Mr. John Tkaczow
Mr. Walter Whitlock
Mr. Richard Watson
Mr. Arthur Sharpsteen
Mr. Charles J. Osborne

On behalf of the Administration and Faculty of Chenango Valley Central Schools
we wish to extend our fondest "Bon Voyage" to the graduating seniors of 1960. May the experience and guidance they have acquired at C. V. C. S. be a constant compass by which they may always "set their course"
through life.
